Summary of Support Line Volunteer Position:

Support Line Volunteers are an important part of the core services offered within the full range of Crises Services at the agency. They provide supportive, phone-based listening services to individuals across the Thames Valley region. In the event that a caller is in crisis, the volunteer will connect the caller with appropriate crisis or Emergency services.

Support Line Volunteers can provide support with individuals when they are experiencing distress, which is a personal and unique experience. All volunteers will participate in an online self-directed training program along with 4 live virtual group sessions that will consist of core information about mental health and addictions, as well as supportive listening techniques. Volunteers will also be trained on specific policies and procedures that are relevant to this role. Two training shifts with a Volunteer Mentor will follow the training program before engaging with callers.

Time Commitment:

Individuals will volunteer for a minimum of 12 consecutive months, providing 11 hours per month (3 hours to be completed overnight between 12am-6am).

Reporting Relationship:

The Support Line Volunteer will receive supervision, direction and support from both the Team Lead and Manager of Supportive Response Programs.
